MEDICINAL.

CURES OTHERS.

Mrs. MARTHA JANE PRINGLE, of Chesapeake, Va., writes: "Having been a great sufferer for many years with nearly every disease my sex is heir to, I can now say I am well and hearty. Have done more hard work in the past year, and with more ease, than I have done for twelve years. Before consulting you I was the most wretched of women, unable to walk or sit up in bed, and now I owe my good health all to your 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pell's.' I gained twelve pounds while using the first bottle of 'Prescription.' I send you my picture together with my most heartfelt thanks. To any one suffering as I did who wants to know the particulars of my case and who will send a stamped envelope with name and address on, I will write particulars."

FOUR MONTHS OF THE NEW TARIFF.
The first six months of the current fiscal year, four months of which have come under the operation of the new tariff law, give some indications of what may reasonably be expected in the months to come, after the new tariff law has become effective in all its multitudinous channels. The receipts for the six months have aggregated $159,500,000 and the expenditures in the same time have been $188,000,000, an excess of expenditures over receipts of $28,500,000. For the corresponding period of the last fiscal year the excess of expenditures over receipts was $38,000,000. Less than $2,500,000 have been received from the newly-imposed duty on sugar, which first appears in any appreciable amount in this month's receipts. Nothing, of course, has been received from the new income tax, which does not go into effect until January 1, 1895. An annual revenue of $55,000,000 or more, it is anticipated, will eventually be derived from these two sources, which will bring the receipts for the balance of the fiscal year up to Secretary Carlisle's estimate as submitted to Congress. The December receipts show an increase over November of $2,500,000, and November showed a slight increase over October, indicating that business is adjusting itself to the tariff rates.

FINE SIGHTS AT NIAGARA.—The blizzard that struck Niagara Falls Wednesday was a heavy one. The effect on the lower river below the falls was most remarkable, and brought the old tradition of the falls going dry in March some fifty years ago. The water gradually lowered in the night from the effects of the terrible east wind until at daybreak a wonderful sight presented itself. Great boulders and rocks loomed up in the gorge, and it is estimated that the water fell fully 20 feet. The Maid of the Mist's decks stood up in the air so far from the river as to look ridiculous. The banks and the suspension bridge were lined with townspeople and tourists viewing the strange sights. There was a most perceptible difference in the water going over both falls. This remarkable phenomenon has not occurred before in over twenty years, so the oldest employees on the State reservation say. The spray has frozen to the rocks, and the sight is growing wonderfully beautiful. The ice and snow scenery in the park and on the island is very beautiful. Niagara has taken on its fine robes, and is growing more charming every hour. Tourists and guests at the hotels, which are comfortably full, are engaging their rooms for a week now in anticipation of seeing some brilliant scenes.

A BRIDE'S COLD WALK.—A romantic story comes from the town of Parsons, Pa. Samuel Collenbach and Miss Ada Parker were engaged to be married in the village church on Wednesday evening. The groom, minister and guests were in waiting. The bride failed to appear. After waiting half an hour the guests dispersed and the church was closed. At 10:30 o'clock the bride arrived home in an exhausted condition. She had walked all the way—five miles—from Wilkesbarre. She had gone to the latter place early in the evening to see a dressmaker who had disappointed her in not having her wedding tresson ready. Miss Parker thought she could get to church in time, but when she tried to do so, she found the great snow storm had blocked the railroad and electric car lines. She then determined to walk. Arriving in Parsons she aroused the groom and preacher and, proceeding to the church, they were married in the presence of witnesses by Rev. F. Kiernan.

Carlton Cornwell, foeman of the Gazette.—Middleton, N. J., believes that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy should be in every home. He used it for a cold and it effected a speedy cure. He says: "It indeed is a grand remedy, I can recommend to all. I have also seen it used for whooping cough, with the best results." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by L. S. Stabler & Co.

Rudy's Pile Suppository is guaranteed to cure PILES and CONSTIPATION, or money refunded. 50 cents per box. Send stamp for circular and Free Sample. MARTIN RUDY, Lancaster, Pa. For sale by all first-class druggists.

MEDICINAL.

Joyous throbbing life

offered to the chronic invalid would be regarded with distrust! Long suffering leaves the patient hopeless—he believes no more in any cure. Would that such hopeless ones could read the testimonials of

Brown's Iron Bitters

They point a way to relief and health, and they are genuine! Sweet Water, Texas.
For twelve long years I was a great sufferer from kidney and other troubles, and at times was confined to my bed. I tried a number of medicines recommended by physicians without receiving the least benefit. Then I gave Brown's Iron Bitters a trial, and two bottles brought me off my back. Today I am well and hearty.
W. T. COLE.
TEN BROOK, TENN.
After being under the care of a physician for eight years, I commenced taking Brown's Iron Bitters with the result that I am entirely cured. It is the best remedy I have ever taken, and I certainly feel that every man suffering as I did could know its value.

One more day of shopping, and the rush will be over. Just one word for this last day. We have wired two factories for Banquet Lamps and Tables; and they will be here MONDAY. The demand has exhausted our supply; and if our prices were not lower than other dealers, this would not have been the case. As it is in this line, so is it in all others. When you buy China and Glass you want to be sure that you are getting it good; and a regular dealer in this line knows his business and you feel safe in buying of him. Then remember that on this coming Monday you want to finish up your shopping with us. Look us over, we have bargains left yet; and you can secure them. If you have been to Washington looking round, then we especially invite you to come in and compare with our prices. You will be surprised when you do this, to find we are offering the very best as low as the Cheap-Johns offer their odds and ends.
